UNCLE SAM WILL LICK STAMPS IF YOU DESIRE

Christmas gift givers this year will not be forced to lick their own stamps when they affix the proper postage to their parcels for mailing, unless they wish to for the Postoffice Department has announced that its postmasters and their assistants would attend to that duty if requested. The innovation is put forth in the interest of better service during the holiday rush and is expected to facilitate the movement of the vast amount of matter that will tax the resources of the department's many employees.

Orders were issued Wednesday to postmasters to affix postage when requested on mail matter of the second, third and fourth class, the latter being parcel post matter. The stamps will be pre-cancelled and the plan is expected to prevent the great waste of time experienced by postoffice patrons, while waiting in line to buy postage and mail their packages.

"Under such authorization," declares Postmaster-General Burleson, "when a parcel is presented for mailing the clerk receiving it, after collecting the required postage, may endorse on the parcel the amount of the postage, which later will be affixed by an employee of the postoffice." The Postmaster General believes that this plan will result in a great saving of time to the department as well as to the people.

TYPHOID FEVER MUST GO.

University of California Announces New Treatment for Fever.

Announcement has been made at the University of California of the discovery by Dr. Frederick I. Gay and Dr. John N. Force, members of the faculty, which, it is said, masters typhoid fever.

The benefits are said to be threefold:

1. Any individual may learn in a few hours whether he is a natural victim of typhoid--that is, whether his natural resistance against this particular malady is abnormally high or low.

2. Vaccinated persons may ascertain promptly whether the treatment has "taken."

3. The length of time that elapses before a vaccination loses its potency and revaccination becomes necessary may be definitely fixed and with scientific accuracy. This period varies slightly with individuals, and has hitherto been conjectured.

Dr. Gay personally tested the method, using 124 cases, with sufficient results to justify his announcing the discovery to the scientific world.

DEATHS

RAY.

Mrs. L. Y. Ray, mother of Mrs. J. Morgan Brown, of this city, died very suddenly at her home at Oakwood, Fleming county, Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Ray was in her usual health at breakfast time, but was found dead in her chair soon after the breakfast hour. She had a fall last December while visiting her daughter, Mrs. Brown, and sustained a broken limb, and though unable to walk without the aid of crutches since that time, yet she enjoyed good health, and her death was a great shock to the members of the family. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Brown, of Paris, Mrs. T. B. Conway and Mrs. T. B. Case, of Chicago, and five sons, Matt. Ray, of Chicago, Bert, Joe, John and Riley Ray, all of Fleming county.

Mrs. Brown was then in Chicago, where she had been for several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Conway, who was ill in a Chicago hospital.

RAY.

A message received in this city yesterday announced the death of Dr. J. Ed Ray, formerly of Paris, which occurred Wednesday at his home in Pueblo, Colo., following a protracted illness due to cancer of the stomach.

Dr. Ray, who was aged 78 years, was a former resident of Paris, where for a number of years he practiced his profession with much success. About fifteen years ago he moved West, where he has since resided. During that time he has made many visits to Kentucky, spending some time with relatives in this section.

He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Mrs. Victor Shipp, of Oklahoma City, Okla., and one son, Mr. Dorsey Ray, of San Francisco, Calif. The remains will be interred in Pueblo today.

MATRIMONIAL.

CAMPBELL-CROCKETT.

The marriage of Miss Kate Campbell and Rev. O. B. Crockett, in Nicholasville, Wednesday evening, took place in the Southern Methodist church in that city, and was a pretty event.

The church was elaborately decorated in palms and festoons of smilax and huge white chrysanthemums. Promptly at 8 o'clock Miss Lena Phillips, the organist, sounded the opening bars of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin, and the bridal party entered. Misses Norma Taylor, Hester Lowry, Margaret Poynter, of Midway, and Orpha Crabbe, of Eminence, were the bridesmaids, and the ushers were Messrs. Will Dunn, of Lexington; William Caldwell, of Danville; William Woods and Robert Simpson, of Paris. Miss Nora Campbell as maid of honor preceded the bride, who entered with her father, Mr. H. B. Campbell. They were joined at the altar by Mr. Crockett and his best man, Dr. Allison Cockrell, of Lexington, and the ceremony was performed by the bride's brother, Rev. W. B. Campbell, of Georgetown, assisted by Rev. John R. Deering, presiding elder of this district. After a wedding journey Rev. and Mrs. Crockett will reside in Nicholasville.

The bride, who is an attractive blonde, was beautiful in her wedding gown of white brocade satin trimmed with duchess lace and pearls. The veil was fastened with orange blossoms and she carried lilies of the valley and roses. The maid of honor was charming in pink satin with draperies of pink chiffon and flower garlands and her bouquet was Killarney roses. The bridesmaids were attired in white crepe meteor with pink girdles and carried pink chrysanthemums tied with tulle streamers. Both Rev. Crockett and his bride are exceedingly popular and were remembered with a number of handsome and beautiful presents.

Rev. Crockett was formerly pastor of the Paris Methodist church, and during his residence in this city made many friends.

LITSEY-COOPER.

The marriage of Miss Jessica Litsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Litsey, of Mercer county, to Mr. William Cooper, of Paris, was celebrated at the Baptist Church in Harrodsburg, Tuesday evening and was one of the most beautiful celebrated in Harrodsburg in a long while.

The church was artistically decorated with ferns, palms and white chrysanthemums. Yellow chrysanthemums and yellow maline marked the reserve section. Before the bridal party entered, Miss Elizabeth Hinton, of this city, sang "Because." The bridal party entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, beautifully played by Miss Cecil Dalton, pianist, and Miss Nell Dedman, violinist. During the impressive ceremony, which was performed by Dr. Harvey Glass, Tanhauser's Evening Star was softly played. Mendelssohn's wedding march was rendered as the party left the church.

The bride was lovely in white, charmingly trimmed with lace and lilies of the valley. Miss Phoebe Litsey, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore an exquisite gown of white mull with yellow ribbons. Mr. Julius Litsey, brother of the bride, gave her away. Mr. Harry Horton, of Paris, was best man, and Messrs. Ernest Martin, of Paris, Robert Marion, of Louisville, and Glave Vivion, of Harrodsburg, were the ushers.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper motored to Danville where they took the train for Cincinnati returning to Paris Wednesday evening, where they will reside.

The bride's going-away gown was brown brocade raitine with which she wore a brown hat trimmed with blue and brown shaded ostrich plumes.

THEATRICAL.

Grand Opera House.

Victor E. Lambert's romance of the new West, "The Girl and the Stampede," is a play founded on the life encountered upon the frontier in the early days of strife with the invaders of Montana. The author has endeavored to picture in a true manner the scenes and incidents just as encountered and experienced by those who braved the storm and hardships of the early life in the days that the play demonstrates. The piece comes to this city with the very highest of endorsements as to its worth and from authentic reports of the various cities of the East where the most successful runs have been made that "The Girl and the Stampede" opens up a new chance for thought and admiration for the great new West. "The Girl and the Stampede" will be seen at the Paris Grand, Saturday, Nov. 15, with the original New York cast and special scenery.

"Mutt and Jeff."

"Mutt and Jeff" and their entire family of fun makers, singers and dancers come to the Paris Grand for an engagement of one night, Thursday, November 20. "Mutt and Jeff" holds the record as the most successful cartoon play in theatrical history. Not alone that, but it is acknowledged the financial success of the season, which means practically the most meritorious musical production of the year. The critics have said it, the people are saying it all over the country. Box office records prove it. To have created such a furore "Mutt and Jeff" must be worthy of your patronage as well as it was of the patronage of others who land it to the skies. It is a musical comedy on entirely new and unique lines, full of fun and good music, introducing those two inimitable character creations of Bud Fisher's genius with the pencil. The play was constructed for laughing purposes only and in that it has been eminently successful. From the first appearance of "Mutt and Jeff" until the final fall of the curtain, laughter is incessant; except when some one is shrieking in excess of merriment. When you go to see "Mutt and Jeff" place your dignity on the seat and sit down on it. You are going to laugh without regard for dignified demeanor or regardless of what anyone is thinking of you. Probably you'll make a "darned fool" of yourself, but don't you care, as all the others are doing the same thing and they won't have time to notice you. You've undoubtedly enough trouble of your own in every-day life, so forget it all and make friends with "Mutt and Jeff." It brings a car load of magnificent scenery and a Pullman car full of "beauty," that is to say, feminine beauty. No play is really worth while without a heavy of pretty girls and this "bevy" is more than pretty.

Don't fail to get in line early on Tuesday morning. That's the day the seat sale opens and when the "Mutt and Jeff" sign is hung out, there's a rush for good seats. Full houses are the regular order of affairs.

FORMER BOURBON MAN INVOLVED IN BIG DAMAGE SUIT

E. I. Welsh, through his attorney, Ryland C. Musick, filed suit in the Breckinridge Circuit Court last week against the First National Bank of Jackson for $50,000 damages for malicious prosecution. He alleges in his petition that the First National Bank, through its vice-president, J. H. Letton, Jr., and president, W. E. Williams, caused his arrest and imprisonment on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses by falsely and maliciously making an affidavit charging him with the offense.

A special grand jury was impaneled to investigate the charge, but failed to return an indictment. Welsh is a prominent insurance man. In the affidavit it was alleged that he secured the money on a draft for $50 drawn on the American Finance Co., of Frankfort. About that time the Finance Co. was sued and its funds and property attached by the American Insurance Co. Welsh asserts the draft would have been paid except for the attachment, of which he knew nothing.

Mr. Letton is a son of Mr. J. H. Letton, Sr., of Bourbon, and a brother of Mrs. D. B. Anderson, of Paris, and Mr. Reynolds Letton, of near Jacktown. Mr. Williams formerly resided in Paris, and is a son-in-law of Mr. J. H. Letton, Sr.

OLD OFFICIALS VICTORS IN THE BURLEY FIGHT

After an all-night session, Tuesday, in which the lawyers of the opposing sides in the election of the directors for the Burley Tobacco Company were in a continued wrangle over the legality of votes offered, the balloting for the directors began Wednesday morning at 2:20 o'clock, with the indications that the following twenty-five would be members of the new Board of Directors:

Clarence Lebus, A. L. Ferguson, C. C. Patrick, C. H. Berryman, Lister Witherspoon, U. G. Saunders, S. A. Shanklin, Fred Stacey, Scott Brown, M. H. Bourne, E. S. Best, John T. Collins, Joe Hughes, W. M. Robb, A. E. King, V. T. Craig, J. R. Boles, B. A. Thomas, F. A. Griffith, W. M. Mathers, Ben Franklin, Glover Kyle, John C. Pirtle, Ambrose Dudley, John F. Fryer.

The only test of strength between the opposing sides came near midnight when the old management's forces won a decisive victory, which was taken to indicate a sweeping victory for the old Board. The test vote occurred when a motion was introduced by Attorney Dwight Pendleton, one of the old Board's counsel, that the stockholders proceed at once to the election of a board of directors of thirty-one members for the ensuing year.

After a long wrangle, Mr. J. N. Kehoe, recognized leader of the opposition forces, introduced an amendment to this motion, calling for the election of a board of twenty-one members instead of thirty-one, together with a reduction in the salaries of the various officials.

That part of his amendment calling for a reduction of the salaries was held out of order, but the part referring to the number of directors to be chosen was held to be in order, and a vote was called for.

The vote was viva voce and the amendment was defeated by an overwhelming majority. The original motion as introduced by Mr. Pendleton was then carried by the same vote and the result was taken to mean a victory for the old board.

LEBUS LEADS DIRECTORS.

Commissioners of the Kenton Circuit Court, under whose supervision the election of directors of the Burley Tobacco Company took place at 8 o'clock Wednesday morning, completed the tabulation of the ballot Wednesday night.

The totals reached after twelve hours' work by a clerical force of eighteen men, will be reported to the stockholders who remain to receive the result at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. The formality will take place in the offices of the company, the only persons whose presence is required being the chairman of the stockholders' meeting, Senator E. K. Renaker, of Cynthiana, and the secretary, Morton H. Bourne, of Owenton.

The totals show that President Clarence Lebus leads all others in the vote received, Vice-President A. L. Ferguson running second, and S. A. Shanklin, of Mason county, the home of Mr. Kehoe, taking third place.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH LADIES HAVE ANNUAL SEWING DAY

The ladies of the Christian church observed their annual all day sewing Tuesday in the parlors of the church. Fifteen sewing machines were kept running all day, and about eighty garments were made for the children of the Orphans' Home in Louisville.

It is the custom of this church to send a Thanksgiving box to the Home every year, and besides the garments made Tuesday the offering this year will include twenty-one pairs of blankets, preserves, canned fruits and vegetables, staple groceries and a generous purse. The day was one of the best ever enjoyed at the church and was under the direction of Mrs. W. A. Amstutz, president of the Women's Society, Mrs. E. B. Hedges, Mrs. Thomas Helm Clay and a large number of energetic and capable assistants.

At the noon hour a bountiful luncheon, consisting of fried chicken, scalloped oysters, beaten biscuits, celery, baked apples, pickles, hot buttered rolls, coffee and a variety of pies, was served to one hundred and thirty interested helpers.

The oldest person present was Mrs. Nancy Jones, who has just passed her eighty-fourth birthday, and who was very happy to meet with the ladies on this occasion. Rev. J. T. Sharard, and Messrs. John T. Hinton, Thos. Henry Clay and A. L. Boatright enjoyed luncheon with the busy workers.

GREAT PIANIST TO BE WITH THE MUSICAL FESTIVAL

In the desire to gear the great basso singer, Mr. Myron W. Whitney, the fact that an artist of rare ability will appear with him should not be forgotten. Miss Marguerite Valentine is a young pianist of very pleasing personality, and hailed by all the Eastern critics as one of the greatest pianists heard last season. This is her second season with Mr. Whitney. She has brilliant technique, combined with the charm of tone colors, impressive warmth and beauty of expression. Every piano pupil in Paris should make it a point to hear this great artist on November 25, at the Paris Grand.

Of Mrs. Whitney, the New York Times says: "His art and his manner of presenting it are well-known in New York, and his singing gives pleasure from the unaffected and sincere quality and his agreeable voice and style."

These two artists, together with the Festival Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Morehead, will surely mark an epoch in the musical history of Paris, and furnish a rare treat for our music-loving citizens.

RAILROAD MUST CONFORM

To Law Regulating Carriers in Dealings With the Public.

When the rights of the public are concerned of a contract between two railroad companies relating to the carrying of freight is susceptible of two constructions that construction must be adopted by the Court that will conform to the law regulating common carriers in their dealings with the public. This sweeping decision by the Kentucky Appellate Court will go a long way to nullify the contract between the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company and the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company relating to the carrying of freight originating in points not included between Louisville and Lexington to be delivered on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad at points between Louisville and Lexington.
